The Bulletin.

PARAGRAPHS. In England, recently, a tin of beef, which had been prepared for the soldiers in the Crimea in 1856, was recently opened, and its contents found perfectly sound and wholesome.

—Mr. Beecher thinks the wickedest thing in the world is to thump a child on the head. This is undoubtedly true. The best way to punish a child is pour hot beeswax down his back.

—A wonderful exhibition has been opened at Brussels. It is a collection of about 100 landscapes of great merit painted by a boy named Fritz Kerchove of Bruges, who died an idiot at eleven years of age.

—News has arrived from India that Mr. Malcolm Beale (brother of Mr. Windward Beale), a young and very promising member of the Civil Service, has been murdered by one of his servants.

—The people at a railroad depot in Boston were astonished by the sight of a man getting off the cars with his mouth wide open, and kept so disoriented to its utmost capacity in what looked like a permanent yawn.
